Typical Additional Disbursements (Mortgage of a Leasehold Property)	Costs including VAT at the rate of 20%
Notice of Charge Fee This fee is generally charged by the Landlord or Management Company under the terms of the Lease for us to give notice of any new mortgage you take over the property.	£150 to £400
Landlord/Management Company Pack Fee	£250 to £700

We will be obliged as part of our duties to your new mortgage lender to obtain confirmation from the landlord and/or management company that the rent and service charge due under the lease is paid up to date, that there are no outstanding breaches of covenant, that the building where the property is located is insured and that no major works are planned on the development among other things. In those circumstances, the landlord or management company will likely charge you a fee for supplying this information. Please note in some developments there are separate packs from the landlord and management company for different information and you may then pay double this fee to obtain both packs.
Certificate of Compliance Fee (very occasionally) Some leases require you to obtain from the landlord and/or management company a certificate confirming provisions of the lease have been complied with before any new dealing such as a mortgage will be registered at the Land Registry. In those circumstances, you will have to pay a fee to the landlord or management company for the certificate.	£150 to £300
The disbursements detailed above are an indication of the disbursements we expect in connection with your mortgage but do be aware it is possible there could be other disbursements incurred in relation to your mortgage that are not typical and are specific to the particular property you are mortgaging. We would confirm these disbursements to you at the appropriate stage of your mortgage. Please further note the notice fee, landlord/management company pack fee and certificate of compliance fee mentioned above are estimated fees and the fees can on occasion be significantly more than the ranges given above. We would confirm the actual fees payable once we had this information from the landlord and/or management company.

Total Costs in excess of £1,400
